

AEGATES

TABLES AND SMALL TABLES | Indoor
BAXTER P.

Each piece in the Aegates collection, from coffee tables to versatile side tables, is conceived as an unusual and playful island, a harmonious meeting of interlocks and divergences. The organic forms, appearing smoothed by the eternal flow of water and time, evoke the natural beauty of the archipelago from which the project takes its name. The strength of Aegates lies in its extreme compositional freedom. While coffee tables can be arranged in pairs or multiple groupings, Aegates side tables bring this fluidity to the bedroom, offering functional support that breaks traditional rigidity. Each piece adapts to the changing needs of the space, enabling the creation of a dynamic, personalized home landscape. The functionality of the tabletop, offered in various heights and sizes, combines with a design originality that invites touch and exploration. Material richness is central: from precious poplar burl that elevates larger pieces to the vibrant gloss lacquer variants available throughout the range. With Aegates, furniture is no longer a fixed element but a lively, contemporary system capable of bringing the breath of nature and the excellence of signature design into every corner of the home.
