

AIMÉE

SOFAS AND ARMCHAIRS | Indoor
CHRISTOPHE DELCOURT

More than a mere armchair, Aimée is an invitation—an embrace of comfort, a sculptural gesture shaped by motion itself. Its design is born of a perfect balance between structure and fluidity, where every curve is crafted to cradle, support, and caress. Upholstered in Baxter's signature leather—soft, tactile, and rich in character—Aimée clings naturally to its form, with an elasticity that gives the piece a gently sculpted feel. Smooth, continuous surfaces enhance the piece's authentic allure, celebrating the sensual depth and tonal richness of the material. Aimée embodies Christophe Delcourt's refined design philosophy: a marriage of formal exploration and material excellence. Generous in its proportions and innately welcoming, it is a seat designed to fit seamlessly into any space, enhancing its atmosphere while offering a pure, cocooning sense of wellbeing. A timeless object, capable of transforming each moment of rest into a quiet ritual of comfort.
