

STROMBOLI

SOFAS AND ARMCHAIRS | Indoor
PAOLA NAVONE

The Stromboli armchair, a revolutionary vision by Paola Navone, boldly challenges the conventions of elegance in contemporary furniture design. In this unique creation, Baxter leather is freed from formal constraints to express its natural inclination for movement—shaping a landscape of folds and ripples that make each piece truly unrepeatable. The visual and tactile effect is surprisingly organic and vibrant—almost sculptural—inviting a deeply sensory experience. Stromboli celebrates imperfection as a superior form of beauty, with a contemporary design language that recalls the expressive fluidity of natural forms. This exclusive designer armchair is far more than a furnishing element: it is a manifesto of creative freedom, transforming the living space into a dynamic environment—an invitation to break free from convention and embrace a new, boundless dimension of elegance.

Structure: wooden frame reinforced with nylon for greater durability and resistance.

Padding / Filling: padding in single density polyurethane foam.

Covering / Coating: upholstery made with an exclusive manual leather folding technique to create unique ruching. Hand-dyed and aged leather, each item will therefore be different and unique.

Available in a single type of leather and colour.

Armchair.
