ACCESSORIES | Indoor
BAXTER P.

The Aegates desk is conceived as a fresh interpretation of the workspace—transforming it into a piece of organic and distinctive design. Its fluid, irregular shapes evoke the imperfect harmony of nature, like islands sculpted by time and water. The design plays with interlocking forms and subtle divergences, as if shaped by the passing of time, achieving a refined balance between visual poetry and functional intent. The generous, enveloping desktop—available in a variety of sophisticated finishes and materials—enhances the tactile essence of the collection, while the dynamic base offers both stability and visual lightness. The palette of finishes ranges from different lacquered surfaces in vibrant colours, capable of interacting with light and the surrounding space. With its iconic presence and remarkable versatility, Aegates redefines the concept of the workspace—uniting functionality and expressive design in a singular, character-rich piece.

Structure: frame in glossy lacquered MDF 100 gloss.
Drawer interior in dark anthracite grey stained ash.
