CHRISTOPHE DELCOURT

The striking Fany collection is the brainchild of French designer Christophe Delcourt, who blends different styles and influences to achieve a synthesis in a fluid combination of materials such as marble, leather, fused glass and high-quality metals. Like sculptures inspired by nature, tables, coffee tables and console tables combine a hand-crafted fused glass top (details in nickel silver, satin-finished brass or burnished brass) with a base that alternates between legs in Travertino White marble and others upholstered in leather, transforming the material's irregularities into the focal point of their beauty. Imperfections due to the natural texture of the stone and the workmanship of the glass make each piece an irreplaceable object, a surprising and intriguing work of art.

Model: assembly required.
Plan / Surface: fused glass top made with a particular technique to obtain imperfect surfaces.
Details with material of choice with matt varnish.
Feet / Legs: legs in Travertino marble with transparent resin stucco and brushed finish with waterproof protective oil, and in leather-covered polimex (see technical drawings).
Adjustable feet.

12% surcharge for leather legs in two different leathers or colour.
Specify the number of legs (see technical drawings) in each kind of leather or colour in the order.
