PAOLA NAVONE

The Ginevra bed, designed by Paola Navone, brings into the sleeping area the same philosophy of comfort and design that defines the armchair and sofa. Its aesthetic is shaped by a soft structure, where the headboard becomes a single, generous cushion ready to welcome and support with unmatched naturalness. In this context, the choice of leather is not merely an aesthetic detail: its tactile texture deeply enhances the sense of relaxation and the pleasure of letting go, following the bed's forms with spontaneity and creating that interplay of waves and natural folds that defines the entire collection.

Model: assembly required.
Structure: headboard structure in fir plywood.
Bed frame with three side bands in honeycomb fir and poplar.
