PIETRO RUSSO

Innovation is the hallmark of the modular Libelle bookcase, the most representative piece of the collection created by Pietro Russo and the one to which the designer is most attached. Libelle embodies the Baxter philosophy in its selection and combination of exceptional materials and quest for a disruptive and striking design that instantly catches the eye. Libelle is a refined and exclusive modular bookcase but also a subtle room divider, a light and modular architectural element capable of enlarging the space by acting as a striking partition, with a functional dimension inspired by classic canons. One of the most interesting aspects of the piece is the infinite array of customisations that can be chosen and added to it as desired. From the countless possible compositions, to the finishes of the materials, to the many accessories that define spaces and functions – such as display cabinets, bottle racks, doors and storage units – this original furnishing accessory amazes every time, establishing new rules of style and elegance.
